33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

GOD REWARDS THOSE WHO SHARE THEIR TALENTS WITH OTHERS
What do coins and the law of economics have to do with the kingdom of God? The Lord entrusts the subjects of his kingdom with gifts and graces and he gives his subjects the freedom to use them as they think best. With each gift and talent, God gives sufficient means (grace and wisdom) for using them in a fitting way. God honors those who use their talents and gifts for doing good. But those who neglect or squander what God has entrusted to them will lose what they have. No one can stand still for long in the Christian life. We either get more or we lose what we have. We either advance towards God or we slip back. Do you seek to serve God with the gifts, talents, and graces he has given to you? "Lord Jesus, be the ruler of my heart and thoughts, be the king of my home and relationships, and be the master of my work and service. Help me to make good use of the gifts, talents, time, and resources you give me for your glory and your kingdom."

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

A long-standing and sacred tradition at St. Frances Cabrini has been the practice of remembering our beloved dead during the month of November. Under normal circumstances the names of our faithful departed are written in the "Book of Remembrance", located in front of the altar. Since COVID-19 prevents us from carrying out our tradition this year, we ask that you write the name(s) of those you wish to remember below, return it to the basket in front of the altar, or mail/drop it off at the parish office. Thank you!

During this month of November we hold close in prayer:

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord."

REQUESTED BY:

PRIVATE CONFESSIONS

Father Paisley will hear confessions by appointment only. Please contact him at 570-696-1144 (Ext. 17). Those who are not comfortable with face to face contact may follow the directive of our Bishop as regards to perfect contrition. By having perfect contrition, one can receive the forgiveness of sins, apart from going to confession.

Perfect Contrition requires the following:

1. A love of God above all else.
2. A sincere desire for the forgiveness from sin.
3. The resolution to go to confession when this health crisis subsides.
