WE CAN PRAY WITH EXPECTANT FAITH AND

TRUST IN THE FATHER'S GOODNESS

We can pray with expectant faith because our heavenly Father truly loves each one of us and he treats us as his beloved sons and daughters. He delights to give us what is good. His love and grace transforms us and makes us like himself. Through his grace and power we can love and serve one another as Jesus taught - with mercy, pardon, and loving-kindness. Do you treat others as they deserve? Jesus' prayer includes a petition that we must ask God to forgive us in proportion as we forgive those who have wronged us (Matthew 6:14-15). God's grace frees us from every form of anger, resentment, envy, and hatred. Are you ready to forgive others? Father in heaven, you have given me a mind to know you, a will to serve you, and a heart to love you. Give me today the grace and strength to embrace your holy will and fill my heart with your love that all my intentions and actions may be pleasing to you. Help me to be kind and forgiving towards my neighbor as you have been towards me.

* Thank you *

Prayer for the People of Ukraine

"Blessed are the Peacemakers for they shall be called Children of God." We pray that the Holy Spirit sustain all the people of Ukraine to be vigilant and dedicated to peace and justice.

Grant their leaders wisdom, prudence, strength and perseverance to defend their land. Help us all to live according to your Divine Will. O God, our Father we beseech you to comfort the suffering, heal the wounded, and accept the souls of the faithful departed into Your Heavenly Kingdom. We ask also that the Most Holy Mother of God extend her blessed mantle of protection over Ukraine. Amen.

God invites us into a relationship with Him that is both personal and communal. He speaks to us through His Son, Jesus Christ, the Word-made-flesh. Prayer is our response to God who is already speaking or, better yet, revealing Himself to us. Therefore, prayer is not merely an exchange of words, but it engages the whole person in a relationship with God the Father, through the Son, and in the Holy Spirit.

This program is offered July 29-30 at the Diocesan Pastoral Center in Scranton. Starting with the Great Story and systematically working through 18 key themes, presenter Michael Dopp walks participants through the key theological, spiritual, and practical practices that empower active evangelists.
