FAITH-FILLED PERSISTENCE REAPS

THE FRUIT OF JUSTICE AND GRACE

Jesus told the parable of the persistent widow and the unjust judge (Luke 18:1-8) to give his disciples fresh hope and confidence in God's unfailing care and favor towards us (grace). In this present life we can expect trials and adversity, but we are not without hope in God. The Day of the Last Judgment will reveal that God's justice triumphs over all the injustices perpetrated by a fallen world of sinful people and that God's love is stronger than death (Song of Songs 8:6).

Those who put their faith in God and entrust their lives to him can look forward with hope and confident assurance. They will receive their reward - if not fully in this present life then surely and completely in the age to come in God's kingdom of righteousness, peace, and joy (Romans 14:17). Lord Jesus, increase my faith and make it strong that I may never doubt your word and promise to be with me always. In every situation I face - whether trials, setbacks, or loss - may I always find strength in your unfailing love and find joy and contentment in having you alone as the treasure of my heart.

SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

In view of the devastation caused by Hurricane Ian & Fiona in the southeast United States Florida & Cuba, Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, and Caribbean, including the loss of many lives and severe damage/destruction to properties. To respond to the need, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has suggested that a voluntary special collection for the humanitarian, long-term recovery, and significant Church needs arising from these disaster.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

The second collection next weekend (October 22 & 23) will be for the World Missions. This essential observance calls us to reflect upon who we are as followers of Jesus and that we are a people called to preach Christ to the ends of the earth. Thank you in advance for all your generous support of the missionary work and life of the church.

PROTOCOL FOR RECEIVING HOLY COMMUNION

Every important occasion carries with it clear expectations about how things are to be done. The same is true for what we Catholics consider to be one of the most important occasions of all: receiving our Lord in Holy Communion. There are things to be said and done in certain prescribed ways for the sake of good order and reverence and to express our unity as we receive the Sacrament of Unity.

SIGN OF REVERENCE Each communicant is to make a sign of reverence before receiving the Host and/or Precious Blood. That gesture is to be a bow, to be made just as the person in front of you is receiving.

RECEIVING THE HOST IN THE HAND The proper way to receive the host in the hand is to place one hand flat on top of the other so that the open palm is facing upward. The response to "THE BODY OF CHRIST" IS "AMEN".

Remember in Your Prayers

Please pray for Loretta Appleby, Don Hunter Sr., Sister Jan Marie Kalyan, Christopher Mortensen, Tom Roarty, Joyce Kishbaugh, Florence Mickley, Jim Starbuck, & Lilly Stroud.
